CONFLICT RESOLUTION TRAINING COURSE OUTLINE

FOREWORD

Each of us learned early in life how to handle conflict. For some of us that means knowing how to effectively communicate our desires and our needs in order to better understand the problem and how it relates to others. For some of us, it may be that we learned to handle conflict by being aggressive and not compromising, which makes it difficult to reach a solution.

Communicating creatively can start from where you stand. It may be within family, community, government or the international arena. This Conflict Resolution Training course offers conflict resolution skills and techniques to build stronger organizations and more rewarding relationships.
